River Vista website coming up soon:

We are working on a website for all owners to access information regarding our community. The website will require log in to maintain privacy. This will be a place to download various forms such as ARB abbreviated form for small exterior work that requires the board approval, ARB long form for more extensive work and new construction, New Owner checklist, Owner guidelines etc...

We welcome your ideas and suggestions as what you would like to find on the website. Please e-mail Joelle or Cecile.

Thank you,

Update about April 16th workshop:

Over half of the community provided input by either attending the workshop or replying by email. Your Board of Directors very much appreciates your participation. The results will be discussed at the next BOD meeting. The BOD thought this was a very successful event and will plan a future Meet and Greet afternoon in the fall.

From the community:

The sign posts in River Vista just got a fresh coat of paint thanks to our volunteers. Cecile Renna, Kirke Howes, Will Biebusch, Joni Sayers and Dave Carlson applied a coat of oil base Rust-olium to all the posts in the community. From time to time there are projects that we can work together on to keep River Vista looking great and we appreciate your participation.

REMINDER

Our new Mailing address: River Vista HOA, 1193 Se Port St Lucie Blvd, PMB# 188, Port St Lucie, FL 34952

From the community:

Wondering what the huge pipe was for that the city drilled under Port St. Lucie Blvd?

Port St. Lucie has always been proactive with our infrastructure dating back to the days of General Development Corporation. This 24 inch sewer pipe is a needed upgrade. After completion and you flush, the effluent is pumped to the substation on Pine Valley and then it goes west under the river to the Southbend treatment facility.

Directional drilling is amazing.

Fun Fact:

River Vista circa 1995,

Thank you April for sharing this photograph capturing River Vista Drive in 1995.

The community has greatly changed since then and many homeowners have built and moved in since. Land was purchase from a homestead which original house still remains at "The Point" and divided into 77 lots. As of today only 5 lots are still vacant.

Elliot Museum

The Elliott Museum is the perfect place to cool off summer month while learning about some famous past residents of the treasures coast: Harmon Elliott (1887 – 1969), son of prolific inventor Sterling Elliott, was among those who have made a mark on the Stuart area. To celebrate his father’s work and bring an educational and cultural resource to the region, Harmon provided the principal funds for the original Elliott Museum which opened in 1961. His father, Sterling Elliott (1852–1922) produced a series of successful inventions in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He held more than 125 patents, receiving his first at age 22. He was foremost an Inventor but also a successful businessman. The museum showcases examples of his inventions as well as a vast collection of antique cars.

Meet your neighbors Pam and Dick Parrish

Pam and Dick love living in River Vista, their little piece of paradise!!! They moved from the Atlanta, GA area a year ago. They had dreamed of moving to Florida when they retired. Once they sold their farm, there was no reason to wait. Dick’s job allows him to work from home. He had worked for NADA for 20 years, and ran his family owned car dealership in Jacksonville. Dick was born and raised in Jacksonville and is very happy to be back in Florida. In 1970, he served his country in Vietnam. A graduate of Univ. of Florida, Dick’s Saturday football season is dedicated to his favorite team... the Florida Gators. Being born in northern Minnesota, Pam had enough of the cold weather! One snow before Christmas is all she needs! After graduating from college, she moved to GA where she taught grade school, then homeschooled. While taking care of a small cattle farm she discovered her passion for driving tractors and working with animals (cows, horses, miniature donkeys, chickens, turkeys, baby deer...) and being outdoors. Dick and Pam have lots of “loves”... Water, beach, boating, fishing, travel, GRANDCHILDREN !!! (So far 7 and one on the way in June), family, and especially the wonderful friendships they have and are acquiring here in River Vista and Port St. Lucie. They thank God daily for all these blessings and hope that as they get to know our residents better they can be a help to the community as well.
